Gents

Two weeks last Wednesday I paid - no $ 1.35 for priced illustrated catalogue of your coin sale in New York Inasmuch as others have received their catalogue I suppose my order had been overlooked or forgotten. Be kind enough to send it at once and oblige Yours Truly

Your Circular received. Please inform me at what price you will sell me the two 1794 uncirculated cents. Also the 1800 over 1799; the 1801 and 1806 cents

What can you sell me the best 1796 $\frac{1}{2}$ dollar in the Biddles collection? Can you furnish me with an 1851 & 1858 perfect proof dollar? If so at what price?

I have great confidence in your description of the different pieces which you catalogue, Mr Woodward notwithstanding, and if your prices for the above are satisfactory will ask you to forward them at once Truly Yours

Gents I am sorry that my customers for the 1836 & 1851 dollar and the 1797 1/2 dollar, finds them too high for his purse. There certainly would be no margin for me in the prices you quote

Truly Yours
